

CHESHAM & AMERSHAM CONSERVATIVE ASSOCIATION
SUPPER CLUB NEWSLETTER
NOVEMBER 2021

Dear Member,

Good to see many of you earlier this month when our speaker was Peter Fleet, our candidate in the recent By-Election, sadly won by the Lib-Dems, as you know only too well. Still Peter suspects we may well have a General Election in a couple of years time so let's see how the Lib-Dems fare then. It was particularly interesting that he noted that some of the Lib-Dems campaign material apparently stated that, if elected, their candidate would stop HS2. She apparently even knocked on the door of Martin Tett (the Conservative Leader of Buckinghamshire Council) offering this commitment. Great idea – but it would be fascinating to know how. It might also be worth reminding her of this promise over the coming years.

Our next speaker is a world away from that. (Indeed you could say “the world is not enough”). The new James Bond film has a lot of coverage at the moment, so, in that vein, our next talk is entitled “Licenced to Thrill” given by Keith Muras, a retired diplomat of some 23 years experience, including having served for many years in Russia. He will focus on these years with what it was like to work and play in Soviet Russia. What was life was like in Moscow in the early 80s working with and against the all-powerful Soviet State. His talk will be illustrated with slides. So find out what really went on. And as an aside, Keith also later served as Global Security Director for General Electric's oil and gas business so he may like to comment on the current gas issues.

Finally as we slowly restart, we find ourselves a little low on raffle prizes, so if you care to bring some along it would be much appreciated.

And don't forget our usual annual Christmas Party on December 10th.

Our second meeting of 2021 takes place on Friday, 12th November at 7 for 7.30 p.m. at Amersham & Chiltern Rugby Club, Ash Grove, Weedon Lane, off Copperkins Lane, Amersham HP6 5QU.
Our speaker this evening is Keith Muras, and his talk is entitled “Licensed to Thrill”

The menu is:

Tomato & Basil Soup
Gammon with pineapple, mini roast potatoes, seasonal vegetables
Apple crumble with toffee ice cream or Biscuits & cheese (if ordered in advance)
Coffee or tea

I, sadly, will be in Scotland for this meeting, but Liz Pooley looks forward to seeing you all on 12th.

Yours sincerely

Roger Ellis, Chairman
